At the end of our life, will we be able to show God that we lived to please Him? A worthy life ambition is the glorious pursuit of loving God by embracing the life of Christ as my own.

We transition to living the life of Christ by “pressing on” with these three commitments:

- I will consider imitating Christ the highest of possible ambitions (12-14).
- I will forget and forsake everything that does not look like Christ (12-14, 18-19).
- I will exert myself to live out the life of Christ moment by moment (12-14, 20-21).